

MONKEY BUSINESS

Critical Praise

Voted most likely to be consumed for breakfast.

Profile:

Monkey Business Zinfandel is a blend of fruit that comes straight from the jungle of grape vines that is Northern California. We make sure that the monkeys coming out of our barrels are from the finest grapes so that anyone can enjoy a great wine at a great price any time.

Pairing Recommendations:

The fruit forward and acidic nature of the Monkey Business Zinfandel makes it ideal to pair with a wide variety of flavors from cold cuts to veggies. Try it with a juicy cheeseburger.

Recycling Recommendations:

Continue to monkey around once the bottle is empty by using it as a candle holder for your next séance.

Alcohol: 14.5 %

2005 Zinfandel Sonoma County

“Monkey Business is a wine made simply for your fun and enjoyment. We take the mystery out of the wine industry and provide you with great wine that you can enjoy with your favorite foods or savor with friends on any occasion. Take one sip and appreciate the burst of fruit that is like a three ring circus in your mouth. Its not just wine when it’s Monkey Business.”

-The Head Monkey

Tasting Notes

Monkey Business Zinfandel is erupting with ripe flavors of raspberry and dark cherry. Subtle hints of vanilla for the American oak barrels will grip you like a monkey to the highest tree branch.

Other Notes

Monkeys do not make good pet but they do make a great bottle of wine.
